Tim Gilbert,

The manner in which the many student organizations and their leaders plan and carry to successful completion, a varied program of activities, indicates, that the responsibilities of their adult lives will be met confidently, and handled with thoroughness and capability.

Mr. Barnett

ADMINISTRATION

During the years you have been enjoying the high school, you have learned from your studies about the freedoms enjoyed in the American way of life, which is founded on respect for the rights of all others. Your school activities have helped you to better understand and apply the Golden Rule in your daily responsibilities. With this foundation of good citizenship, we believe you will make this community a better place than you now find it.

MAJORETTES

"In The Mood" and "Basin Street Blues" are two of the routines performed by the dancing majorettes this year. They added color and zest to most of the pep assemblies and football and basketball half times. They also entertained at the Football Banquet, Girls' League Conference, Shrine Convention, Junior Rose Parade, and several College games.

Mr. Irvin Lesser is director.
They are led by Marge Remus.

BAND

Marching and concert work were the objects of the fifty-five piece Oregon City Senior High School Band this year.

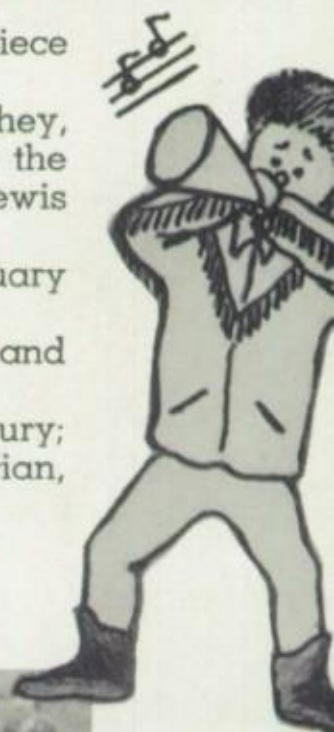

Besides adding their support to all "home" football games, they, with the majorettes and forty-niners, were guest performers during the half-time of the Pacific University-College of Idaho game and a Lewis and Clark College football game.

Their biggest performance of the year was their annual February program, "Bands in Concert."

The band also played various programs throughout the year and competed in the District Instrument Contest at Hood River.

The officers this year were: Assistant conductor, Larry Swinbury; Secretary, Beverly Bowman; Historian, Marciel Mark; and Librarian, Beverly Hopkins.

The band is under the direction of Mr. Ervin Lesser.

The seventy-two voices of the Advanced Chorus and small ensemble groups presented twelve programs of Christmas music to various civic organizations. The Chorus and the General Music class combined to present the annual Christmas program. During the second semester the Chorus traveled to Hood River to participate in the Northwest District Competition Festival and later presented their annual spring concert.

ORCHESTRA

Under the direction of Mr. Viljo Hillend, the Oregon City Senior Orchestra has had a very successful year. The forty-six piece symphony orchestra is made up of strings and the more advanced instrumentalists of the band. They put on the annual Winter Concert, and played for the Oregon City commencement exercises. The orchestra played in the city-wide spring concert, and in the Hood River District Instrumental Contest. Two special groups were the stringed orchestra, and the stringed quartet.

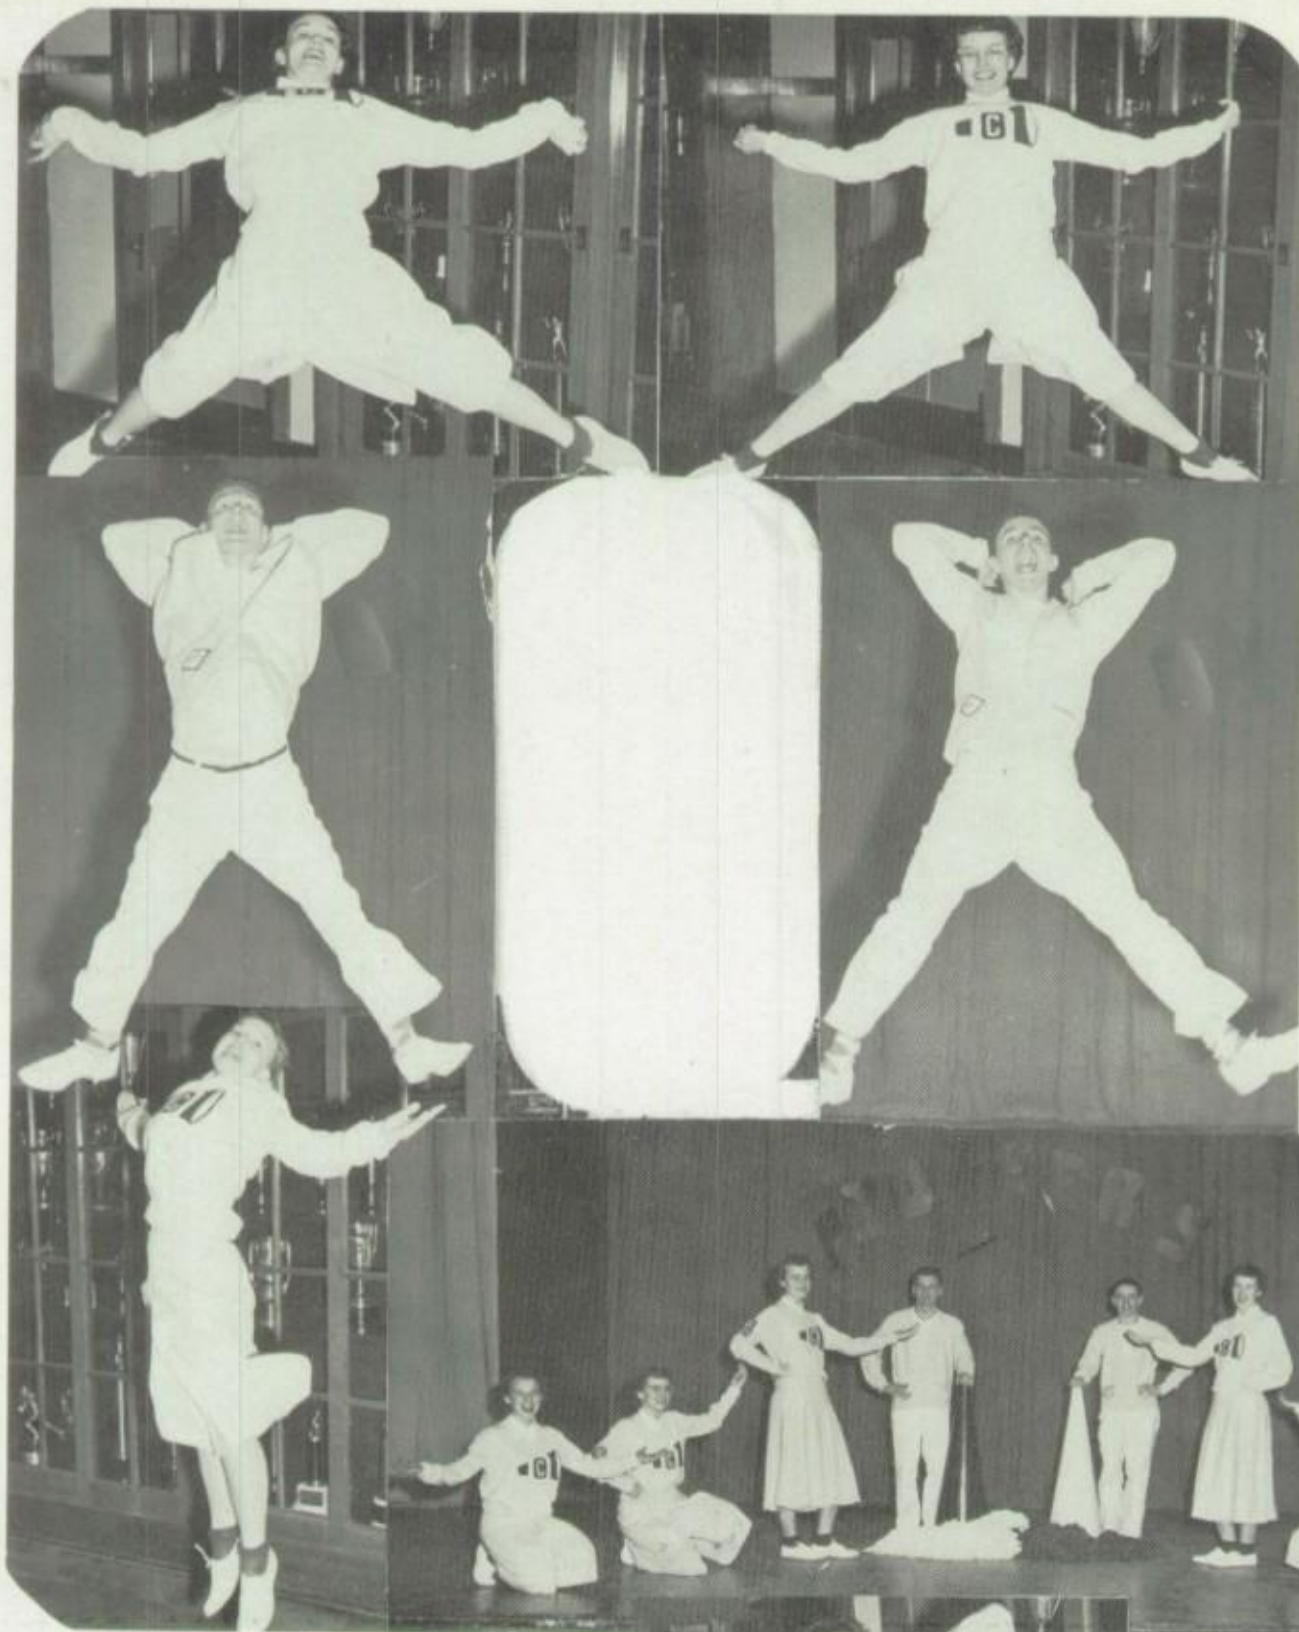

The General Music class this year increased in size so that it was vocally a balanced group. The class sang a program of traditional Christmas music with the Advanced Chorus. In the spring they prepared a unit on opera and musical comedy and presented a program of excerpts. Activities of the General Music class include choral experience, listening, and the history and theory of music.

Heartbreak? That's how many of the fans and players would describe the 1953 football season. But it should be considered successful. The Pioneers posted a five win and two loss league record. They saw their chances for league championship slip through their fingers when they lost to Hillsboro in the last eighteen seconds of the game.

This years starting line up consisted almost exclusively of seniors. Halfback Otto Mott was our leading scorer as well as top point maker in the county standings. He placed second in the T.Y.V. league. Pioneers Dick Boltz, Harold Achtziger, Chuck Misley, and Robert Hauck were selected as members of the T.Y.V. all star team. Larry Minor, Robert Hauck, Otto Mott, Harold Achtziger, and Lee Kidman earned berths of the Enterprise-Courier all county team. Fullback J. C. Wheeler was chosen to play in the Shrine benefit game of 1954. Otto Mott was an alternate for the same team. Paul Hood was voted the "Most Inspirational Player" of the year. The junior varsity won five games and lost three for the season.

Basketball was just fair this year at Oregon City, the team winning 10 and losing 10. Four of these games were lost by five points or less. One real thriller was a loss to Forest Grove by only one point in a double over-time. As the scores show, they really caught fire the second half of the season, winning 7 out of 10 games. Defeating West Linn in the last league game of the season put us in a tie for fourth place in the TYV league standings.

The high scorers this year were, in the following order, Don Schmeiser, Jim French and J. C. Wheeler.

Ron Edwards, Larry Granquist and Bob Gettel lead the scoring this year. Coach Tom Nutter lead the J.V.s in his first coaching assignment in Oregon City to an 8-6 win-loss record. Watching the J.V.s in action often times offered as many thrills to the spectator as the Varsity squad.

Oregon City wrestlers won 5 of their 7 league matches. One of their wins was over the league champions, Newberg. OC placed second in the TYV league standings. They copped 1st place in the district 2 tournament. Mitsy Tamura was the only boy from OC to place in the state tournament.

VARSITY BASEBALL

Playing on this year's baseball squad are nine returning lettermen: Otto Mott, Chuck Misley, J. C. Wheeler, Wally Harding, Jim French, Bob Hauck, Tim Gilbert, Hugh Hendry, and Larry Grandquist. This year's pitchers are Harry Christenson, Hugh Hendry, Leland Nyswonger, Don Schmeiser and John Gettel.

From all indications at this writing we expect to have a good season.

The outlook for J.V. baseball is "Tops," says Coach Nutter. This is Tom's first year at Oregon City, but his past tells a tale. In his several years of coaching he has never piloted a baseball team to less than a 2nd place. The pitching staff looks extremely good. The squad is composed mainly of Freshmen. The coaching staff is of the opinion that there are many good potential Varsity players on this squad.

TRACK

Jack Hogg was the only senior letterman returning to lead the O. C. track squad this year. He specializes in the 100 yard dash. Other returning letter and stripe winners are Harold Beagley, top sprint man for the freshmen last year, Lynn Wiley, Alan Wright and Lee Kidman. With 32 boys turning out this year, there is a large squad to bolster their chances at local meets.

TENNIS

This year's tennis squad is bolstered by six returning letter winners. Marjorie Remus, Nancy Morris and Kitty Goodson are the girls, and Jack Owens, Johnny Graham and Ron Lettenmaier are the boys. Because of many newcomers and the returning veterans, competition for a place on the team was tough. The coaches this year are also newcomers, being "Bunny" Bradley and Len Rinearson.

Basketball Jamboree practice is well under way. We took second in T.Y.V.

This year the princesses for the annual Girls' League Christmas Ball were Sophomores Sue Lathrop and Jerene Sullivan, Juniors Liz Richardson and Pat Payne, and Seniors Joan Berndt and Mildred Blodgett. The Queen was Janice Lettenmaier.

Here's a close up of part of the crowd.

Looks like fun, doesn't it?

Larry Swinb was her escort.

Dick Matcovich crowns Queen Janice Lettenmaier.

The West Linn pep assembly was put on by the Junior girls.

Aren't they handsome? Chuck Misley and Dick Boltz were voted handsomest lettermen.

This is what went on at I.R.C. initiations meeting. Now was the dance, Dick?

"Arsenic and Old Lace" was the Senior class play this year. Cast members are: Laurie James, Shari Guinan, Pat Alexander, Sharon Gunther, Charles Bockelman, LeRoy Tiedtke, Bob Essig, Bill Howell, Don Wake, Bob Hunter, Paul Hood, Bruce Fosberg, Wesley Morton, Burt Aus, Jack Schuell.

Mary Morris, Queen of basketball, reigns over the student body with her court: Jim French, Nancy Morris, John Graham, Pat Alexander, Bill Howell, crowning the Queen.

Queen Mary the 1st, escorted by Larry Minor, A Curry, John Gettel, Berna ta Fischer, Dick Bo Marie Robinson and L Kidman.

Recognize her? Yes it's Miss Bradley—you're really doing fine. Shake it but don't break it!

The "Brandon Four" was a big hit when they sang for the talent show.

"Dear John" was the name of the song. Don't they like becoming?

Larry Swinburn went over big at the talent show, accompanied by Skippy Schear.

I.R.C. TALENT SHOW

Here are a few of the many couples dancing to Frank Elliot and his Moonlighters.

Just arriving at the Prom, Judy and Chuck are on their way to have a wonderful time.

Queen Joan Gottfried and her escort, Alan Mootry pause in between dances. Her court consisted of Princess Jackie Buchholz escorted by Dick Matcovich and Sue Frost escorted by Jim Ott.. Due to the absence [?] of the photographer, no pictures were obtained during the ceremony.

The photographer caught a few of the couples resting between dances. It looks like one of the girls is dozing.

Gordie, Carol, Joanie and George paused long enough from dancing to have their picture taken beneath the many blossomed dogwood trees.

This year the dramatic department consisted of two ninth grade classes and one seventh grade class. The students studied make-up, pantomime, costuming, lighting, constructed stage scenery, studied problems of acting and presented three three-act plays and several one-act plays.

The ninth grade presented "The Black Knight" by James Gardner Hellman, a delightful Christmas historical play and "Alice in Wonderland" dramatized by Charlotte Chorpenning.

"Alice in Wonderland" was presented to an audience of about fifteen hundred elementary school students and proved to be a very successful and well-liked production.

For both plays, colorful and attractive costumes were made which aided in making the plays more attractive to the eye.

The Children's Theater has now become an institution in the Oregon City Junior High School. The type of plays presented are most suitable for us because they are plays written for, acted by, and given to children. They are also plays that stir the imagination.

We ended the year with a series of scenes from the plays of William Shakespeare. These were acted before an audience of the students' parents and friends. Refreshments were served.

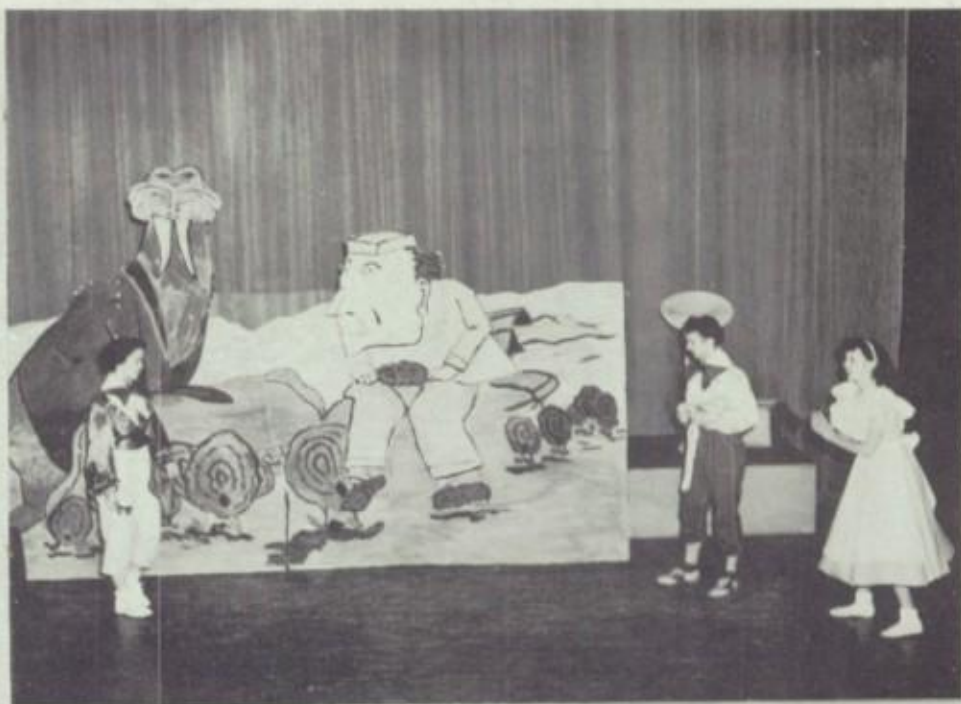

Director of the dramatics department is Mrs. Winifred Preston.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

Oregon City's Freshman Pioneers retained their T.Y.V. Frosh Championship as they captured their second straight basketball title in succession.

The squad ended the current season with a twelve win—six loss record. After dropping the first four pre-season contests, the Pioneer Rooks started to look alive as they went to a twelve and two T.Y.V. League record. The team's only losses were to the Grizzlies of McMinnville and the West Linn Lions.

Coach Davis said that he was quite pleased with his team during the campaigns.
